Old Business

Script Committee: Reading, Reading, Reading. Saw Elephant Man. Passing around list for members to look at to determine if some can not be done. Suggestion was made that we need to do big hits shows.

Jared Wright, Co-Director of Romance, Romance submitted a short list of things that he needs for the show. Musicians. Etc. Work Call on Saturday, clean up and touch up painting.

Alliance theater is doing Jesus Christ Superstar.

Conversion of show tapes to DVD is 1/3 done and verified. Some shows are missing. Looking for more tapes of older shows. Heather May offered to write letter to past Historians asking them to send scrapbook and tapes of old shows that they may have.

Taping of Romance, Romance will be done on February 19.

New Business

Clean up for show will be held Saturday, February 14.

Auditions for Whose Wives Are They Anyway will be held February 23 & 24.

Kent Richards suggested we connect with the Drama Department at GMC in Union City. David Calliff stated that GMC does not have a Drama Department at this time.

Discussion ensued on how to raise money to boost our income. Suggestion from Keith Anderson that we post on the website the available dates for rental of the theater. Comment was made that we are not money poor but people poor.

Discussion ensued on doing better advertising of auditions. Discussion ensued about bringing in people , needing to bring in more people to help with shows.

Next meeting March 17, 2009

Meeting adjourned.
Respectfully submitted,
Nancy Norris
